

Annex I – Look there

VOCABULARY & GRAMMATICAL CONSTRUCTIONS

I. LOOK THERE

Structure	Example
You walk around a certain place and do the following dialogue. - A: Look there, a ... - B: A what? - A: A ... - B: Ah yes, a ...	- A: Look a tree. - B: A what? - A: A tree. - B: Ah yes, a tree.

with a description...

Structure	Example
- A: Look there a ... - B: A what? - A: A ... It has/is ... (+ description) - A: Ah yes, a ...	- A: Look, there, a tree. - B: A what? - A: A tree. It has beautiful colours. - B: Ah yes, a tree (with pretty colours).

with a list of characteristics ...

[This works better if they can see what they are describing]

Structure	Example
- A: Look there, a ... - B: I see ... - A: I see ... - And so on.	- A: Look, there is a tree. - A: I see leaves. - B: I see a trunk. - A: I see a very thick branch. - B: I see twigs. - A: I see a bird's nest. - B: I see a dead branch. - A: I see bark. - B: I see yellow leaves. - ...

with a correct description...

Structure	Example
- A: Look there ... - B: What is ... - A: Give the most correct description possible. - B: Ah yes, a ...	- A: Look there a mailbox. - B: What is a letter box? - A: A letterbox is a box with a slot in it. The postman puts letters, packages, advertising leaflets or bills in it. The person living in the house takes everything out and either reads it or throws it away. - B: Ah yes, a mailbox.